

A Brief Report
On
A One Day Seminar on 'Preparing for Revised NBA
Accreditation Framework'

IQAC, RIT organized a one –day seminar on Preparing for Revised NBA Accreditation Framework on 9th July 2025 at the institute. The primary objective of the seminar was to orient and update faculty members, especially Heads of Departments and NBA coordinators, about the recent revisions in the NBA SAR (Self-Assessment Report) format. This in-house capacity-building program aimed to strengthen the understanding of accreditation standards, streamline internal processes, and align institutional practices with the expectations of the NBA. It also served as a platform to address doubts and practical challenges faced by departments during the accreditation process.
