RIT GANESH FESTIVAL

RIT celebrates Ganesh Festival every year. Ganesh Chaturthi, also called Vinayaka Chaturthi, is mostly a 10-day festival marking the birth of the elephant-headed deity Ganesha, the god of prosperity and wisdom.

The cultural cell students & faculties collaboratively plans for the organization of “Murti Stapana”, its vidhi, Aarti schedules, various events and visarjan program.

Cultural cell and authorities finalize the eco-friendly Ganesh idol & get it worshiped from the day of Ganesh Chaturthi. Each day, different department/cell's faculties and students are invited for Aarti (Morning/Evening). On 6th day of festival, a common Prasad is prepared & distributed to all. Various events are organized during the same as like Online Ganesh photo competition etc. Students and Faculties from all branches & communities actively participate for organization of Ganesh Festival. On Anant Chaturti, the visarjan program is planned of Ganesh idol in an eco-friendly context and the water is thereafter used for plantation.
